FIRST THINGS FIRST

Read up on the universities

There are 37 public or private universities and higher education institutions located in the City of Prague, all there is left to do is to choose one! Have a look at one of the lists of the universities and courses available or do your own Google research. Be careful to choose an English program, especially if your Czech language skills are just not there yet.

Check the admission requirements and apply

Every university and, in most cases, each of the faculties has different admission conditions. Generally, they will require all documents which are not originally issued in the Czech, English, or Slovak languages to be officially translated into the Czech or English languages.

Arrange health insurance

It is the responsibility of a student to have health insurance that meets all the legal conditions arranged for the entire time of your stay in the Czech Republic.

Search for a scholarship

There are many governmental or private funding programs available designed especially for foreign nationals studying in the Czech Republic. If you are looking for additional financial funding for your studies, check the section "Scholarships".

Choose a program

Make sure to choose a programme you are interested in and you're going to love. Do not forget to check the application guidelines and deadlines and see if you can provide all the required documentation for the application.

File for residence permits or visa

Depending on the type of your study stay, you will have to obtain a short-term or long-term visa to ensure your residence in the Czech Republic is legal. To determine which type of visa or residence permit is the right one for you or whether you actually need one, check the section "Residence Permits and Visas".

Look for accommodation

Find an apartment or other accommodation and contact the owner. You can choose from a variety of long-term and short-term student accommodation in Prague, depending on your criteria and budget.

UPON ARRIVAL

Register at your dormitory and, if needed, with the Foreign police

You have an obligation to register at the Foreign police within three days of entering the Czech Republic unless you live in dormitories or your accommodation provider does it for you.

Enrol at your university

At most universities, you will have to check in with the Student Office ("Studijní oddělení"). Keep in mind to bring all necessary documents with you.

Pick up a residence card at the Immigration office

This falls under the Ministry of the Interior. Addresses can be found click here.

Look for things to do and experience in your new home! You will find a lot of links for useful websites throughout this guide. We also highly recommend the YouTube channel Honest Guide.

Connect with fellow students

There is a number of international student organizations and clubs where you can make new friends and participate in all kinds of activities, excursions or trips. Most of the universities run their own clubs and Prague is a home for several international organizations and institutes with various social activities for expats.

Start learning Czech

Although not a strict necessity anymore, it is helpful to learn at least the basics of this difficult language because it'll help you deal with office clerks and others who may not speak English. Popular ways to learn Czech are the Duolingo app, podcasts such as One minute Czech, and signing up for language courses.

Find your local doctor, dentist and pharmacy for your medical needs

There are many medical professionals who offer their services in English or other foreign languages.

PRAGUE FOR EXPATS

A BASIC GUIDE TO HIGHER EDUCATION IN THE CZECH REPUBLIC

Prague has become one of the best global cities for studying abroad due to its beauty, low cost of living, and its many different study opportunities.

Czech universities offer a wide range of highprofile accredited programmes at three different levels:
bachelor's, master's and doctoral (PhD) degrees.

Most of the faculties provide study programmes and courses in English, French and German for international students. University studies can be completed via either a full-time, internal programme or a part-time, external programme.

DEGREE STRUCTURE

Again, the three levels of degree programmes in the Czech Republic are bachelor's, master's, and doctoral (PhD).

BACHELOR'S DEGREE PROGRAMME

A bachelor's degree programme normally lasts 3 to 4 years and can be either a self-contained degree oriented to future employment, or taken as a first step towards a master's degree.

Bachelor's degrees are completed with a final state examination that usually includes the defence of a bachelor's thesis. Successful graduates will be awarded the Bc. title for completing a bachelor's degree.

MASTER'S DEGREE PROGRAMME

A master's programme lasts an additional 2 to 3 years after you complete your bachelor's degree. Some master's programmes skip the bachelor's degree and last a total of 4 to 6 years. These programmes are typically only for medicine, psychology, or law.

Master's degree programmes are broader and more academically demanding than bachelors' studies. Degrees are completed with a final state examination which usually includes the defence of a diploma thesis. In most cases, the successful graduate will be awarded the title of Mgr. for completing their master's degree. Some fields (e.g. technical, economical or agricultural fields) award their graduate an engineering title: Ing. Other types of master's degree programmes include Doctor of Medicine (MUDr.), Doctor of Dental Medicine (MDDr.), Doctor of Veterinary Medicine (MVDr.), and a Master of Arts (MgA.).

DOCTORAL DEGREE PROGRAMME

Postgraduate doctoral degree programmes usually last 3 years. The study is focused on scientific research and independent creative activity. They provide students with the appropriate qualifications for their given academic discipline. A doctoral degree programme is completed with the state doctoral examination and the defence of a dissertation thesis. A successful graduate will be awarded with the title of PhD.

CREDIT SYSTEM & GRADING SYSTEM

As part of university studies, students earn a certain number of credits for completing individual courses. The Czech universities use the European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System (ECTS), which is a workload-based system for measuring and comparing study results. The ECTS credit system is implemented in all universities across Europe. The advantage of the international system is that it allows students to complete their study obligations abroad without losing any necessary credits.

Each module awards a certain number of credits, which indicates the degree of difficulty of the subject. One ECTS credit is equal to approximately 25-30 hours of work per semester, and you can earn up to 10 credits for even a single course. The workload indicates the time students typically need to complete all of their learning activities, such as lectures, seminars, projects, practical work, self-study, and examinations.

Students obtain these credits by fulfilling all conditions that are required for completion of that module. All students are graded on an A-F scale according to the Local Grade Scheme.

The standard rate of study is 30 ECTS credits per semester, which equals 60 ECTS credits for a full academic year. Students need 180 credits to complete a bachelor's degree, and an additional 120 credits to complete their master's degree. Obtaining a certain number of credits is required to either enroll for the next study year or to successfully complete your programme.

ECTS GRADING SCALE:

ECTS GRADE	% OF STUDENTS WHO TYPICALLY ACHIEVE THIS GRADE	DEFINITION
A	10	EXCELLENT — outstanding performance with only minor errors
B	25	VERY GOOD — above-average performance, but with some errors
C	30	SATISFACTORY — generally sound work with some notable errors
D	25	SATISFACTORY — fair, but with significant shortcomings
E	10	SUFFICIENT — performance meets the minimum criteria
FX	-	FAIL — some work required before the credit can be awarded
F	-	FAIL — considerable further work is required

REQUIRED DOCUMENTS TO SUBMIT:

(NOTE: PLEASE MAKE SURE TO SEND IN CERTIFIED COPIES OF DOCUMENTS, NOT THE ORIGINALS)

- A completed application form, which can be downloaded here:
Studies Recognition - Study in Pragu
- A certified copy of your secondary school leaving certificate — this must be prepared by a Czech notary and be legalized or apostilled in your country of origin with an official
- Czech translation from a Czech court translator attached. The type of translation that you need is called “soudní překlad” in Czech.
- A certified copy of your transcript of all secondary school subjects that you've studied, with the total number of hours studied — again, this must be prepared by a Czech notary, legalized or apostilled in the country of origin, and have an official Czech translation from a Czech court interpreter attached.
- Proof that the school which issued the school leaving certificate is integrated into the education system of your country of origin (if it is unclear from the leaving certificate and transcript issued by the school).
- Proof of payment of an administrative fee (CZK 1,000).
- Copy of a valid identity document (passport or ID).
- Proof of accommodation (further information can be found on the Ministry of Interior websites: Proof of Accommodation - Ministry of Interior).

Documents which are not originally issued in the Czech, English, or Slovak languages must be officially translated into Czech or English.

ACADEMIC CALENDAR (TWO SEMESTERS)

The academic year is divided into two semesters: autumn/winter and spring/summer. Each semester consists of teaching periods, examination periods, and vacations. The number of teaching weeks and the length of the examination period are individually determined by the universities. The first semester (fall/winter) usually starts at the end of September or the beginning of October. The second semester (spring/summer) starts in the middle of February.

RECOGNITION OF FOREIGN DIPLOMAS & DEGREES

To utilize any qualifications or education attained in a foreign country, it is necessary to have that education recognized by the Czech educational system.

RECOGNITION OF SECONDARY EDUCATION

A notarized copy of a secondary school leaving certificate is very commonly required to apply for a bachelor's degree programme at Czech universities. A graduate of a foreign school who has completed primary, secondary, or higher vocational education — not university education — needs to go to the Department of Education at Prague City Hall to apply for nostrification of their foreign education documents.

THERE ARE 3 WAYS TO SUBMIT THE APPLICATION:

IN PERSON

YOU CAN SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION IN PERSON AT PRAGUE CITY HALL. THE APPLICATION FEE OF CZK 1,000 MUST BE PAID AT THE MHMP CASH DESK IN THE SAME BUILDING.

TIPS TO SAVE MONEY

USE YOUR STUDENT DISCOUNT

Upon the admission at the university, students usually obtain a student card or ISIC/EURO26 card which provides some discounts at restaurants, shops, phone providers, festivals and other services. For the complete list of discounts in the Czech Republic see:

Discounts in the Czech Republic - ISIC.cz

TRY TO GET YOUR COURSE LITERATURE SECOND-HAND

Most of the universities require students to acquire a notable amount of course literature. Instead of buying a new one, there are many options for how to get access to it — try a second-hand bookstore where you can buy used course literature or buy it from your older course mates.

TRAVEL AT DISCOUNTS

Do not forget to apply for your student discount while travelling! Students can acquire a discount on season tickets in Prague up to the age of 26. The discount applies to students that study at a Czech university, are full-time students and provide a confirmation issued by the school (every academic year). The discount is applicable only to season tickets, there are no discounts for students on short-term tickets.

HOW TO STAY AFTER YOUR STUDIES

GETTING A JOB

It is recommended to start the job hunt in advance as it might take some time to find the right work related to your future profession.

Most universities offer job opportunities at the faculties as well. Many universities host job fairs attended by representatives of big international companies that are located in the Czech Republic where the recruiters are actively looking for potential employees. That puts the students at the local universities in a favoured position on the job market.

Being fluent in English or any other language is another huge advantage that international students have in comparison to the rest of the job market.

EU NATIONALS

Citizens of European Union or EEA (European Economic Area) countries including Switzerland who are planning on staying in the territory of the Czech Republic do not need to obtain a work permit to be employed and are allowed to work as they have the same legal status as the citizens of the Czech Republic.

EURES

network is a database of job vacancies in the countries of the European Union.

You can find further information about job vacancies for foreigners at the Labour Office website and at the EURES Vacancies database.

NON-EU NATIONALS

Citizens of the so-called third countries are allowed to work while studying and do not need a separate work permit. However, paid work cannot be your primary occupation as the basis of your visa is your studies.

In cases where the student has already obtained university education in the Czech Republic and has finished their studies, citizens who do not come from EU/EEA countries are obligated to obtain a work permit and a residence permit or an Employee Card or Blue Card. For more information about different types of residence or work permits see the section “Work in Prague.”

“If you are a third country citizen who has obtained your university education in the Czech Republic and you have already finished your studies, then you have to apply for an employee card if you wish to stay in the Czech Republic for working purposes. Foreign nationals who have obtained university education in the Czech Republic have free access to the labour market. In this case, the employee card serves merely as a long-term residence permit where the stated purpose of the foreign national’s stay (longer than 3 months) is employment.”

RESIDENCE PERMITS AND VISA

Thinking about staying in Prague after your studies? We are happy to hear that! But don't forget to check the procedures of getting your visa or other permits first.

PRAGUE FOR EXPATS

If you are planning on staying in the Czech Republic for more than 30 days, you are obligated to register your place of residence in this country at the Foreign Police department within 3 days of arriving.

FOREIGNERS RESERVATION SYSTEM

However, in some cases, the registration is done by your accommodation provider. The accommodation provider has the reporting responsibility, which means that if you are staying in dormitories or at a hotel, your accommodation provider will report your place of residence for you.

The administration of visas and residence permits to enter the Czech Republic is handled by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs (MFA), which runs the consular service at the Embassy where you need to apply for the initial visa application.

The Ministry of the Interior (MOI) is responsible for foreign nationals who are already residents in the Czech Republic. If you come to the Czech Republic with a single-entry visa for the purpose of collecting a residence permit or a long-term visa for the stay of over 90 days, you have to go there.

Both ministries have extensive English-language information pages regarding visas and immigration, and we recommend that you read them before starting the whole visa process.

VISA-FREE STAY

Students from the EU/EEA countries (including Norway, Iceland, Liechtenstein and Switzerland), do NOT require a visa to study in the Czech Republic. The only requirement for entry is a valid passport or national ID card.

If you intend to stay in the Czech Republic for more than 3 months, it is optional to request a Certificate of temporary residence or, after 5 years of residence in the Czech Republic, a Permanent residence permit.

For further information about a Certificate of temporary residence, click here.

For further information about a Permanent residence permit, click here.

SHORT-TERM VISA

Short-Term Visas are issued for students outside the EU/EEA countries (so-called “third-country nationals”) who intend to study or take part in other educational activities in the Czech Republic for a period shorter than 3 months. If your stay will be shorter than 3 months, you can apply at a Czech consulate in your country of your origin (or your country of residence) for a Schengen (short-term) visa for the purpose of studies or for other purposes.

- travel health insurance

LONG-TERM STAY FOR STUDY PURPOSE

Students from outside the EU/EEA countries (so-called “third-country nationals”) do require a visa or a residence permit to study in the Czech Republic. You can apply for a long-term visa for a stay of over 90 days or a long-term residence permit for the purposes of STUDY or OTHER.

The most common procedure is applying for a long-term visa which is issued for a maximum of 1 year. In the case of further studies, it is recommended that the student applies for a long-term residence permit issued for a maximum of 2 years in the Czech Republic.

LONG-TERM VISA

A Long-Term Visa is issued when the stay in the territory of the Czech Republic is expected to exceed 3 months.

A Long-term visa is issued for a maximum of 1 year, and you can apply at the Czech consulate in your country of origin (or residence). The visa must be obtained before your arrival to Prague.

Applications cannot be filed in the Czech Republic. Processing times for deciding on an application can take up to 90 days.

Therefore, we strongly recommend contacting the Czech consulate well in advance.

NOTE:

if you want to continue your studies after your visa expiration date, you will need to apply for the long term residence permit. The earliest you can do this is 120 days before your initial visa expires, but technically you have until the last working day before your initial visa expires.

- proof of payment for your medical travel insurance.

LONG-TERM RESIDENCE PERMIT

A long-term residence permit for the purpose of studying is intended for foreigners who will study in the Czech Republic for a period longer than 3 months as a part of a study programme lasting longer than 1 year. This could be a study programme at a university or higher vocational school, at a high school or conservatory via an exchange program, a specialized language preparation with subsequent university studies, and in certain cases unpaid training or volunteering.

Should the intended duration of study be longer than three months, but shorter than one year, an application for the long-term visa should be submitted. For more information about when to file an application for a long-term visa or a long-term residence permit, please see:

Long-Term Visa vs. Residence Permit - Ministry of Foreign Affairs

You can apply at the Czech consulate in your country of origin (or residence). If the application is successful, the Czech diplomatic mission will issue you a long-term visa for the purpose of collecting your long-term residence permit. You will collect the permit at the Ministry of the Interior after your arrival to the Czech Republic. The application can be submitted at the Ministry of Interior office if you hold a long-term visa or residence permit for another purpose and you are already in the Czech Republic. Processing times for deciding on an application can take up to 60 days.

Therefore, we strongly recommend contacting the Czech consulate well in advance.

CURRENCY

The Czech Republic is a member of the European Union, but the currency is the Czech Crown, not the Euro. You can exchange your money at a bank or at exchange offices, but you should be careful with the latter as a lot of the exchange offices use unfavourable exchange rates. Alternatively, you can use an international credit card almost everywhere.

For up-to-date exchange rates, visit the Czech National Bank websites.

OPENING A BANK ACCOUNT

Opening a bank account in the Czech Republic is a relatively straightforward process. There are no special limitations for foreigners and the account should be ready to use within a week. The Czech Republic has plenty of banks with English-speaking staff, making it easy to open a bank account in the country. The Czech Republic hosts national retail banks as well as branches of most of the international banks.

IN GENERAL, YOU WILL NEED THE FOLLOWING DOCUMENTS TO OPEN A BANK ACCOUNT IN THE CZECH REPUBLIC:

- a valid passport or ID
- another identity document (your driving license, birth certificate, resident card, health insurance card, or employee identification card)
- if you're a student and want to establish a student account, the bank will require a certificate of study or your visa for the Czech Republic.
- a minimum deposit (between CZK 200 and CZK 2,000 — depending on the bank) will serve as the first payment into your account.

We highly recommend calling the chosen bank in advance of your visit. You can contact the helpdesk or the specific branch directly and schedule an appointment with a person who speaks English. Some banks also offer an option to open an account online. However, you will still have to go to the bank the next day to sign a contract and finalize the procedure.

As you can start the process of opening a Czech account online, it is possible to get an appointment and sign the contract within 48 working hours. If you're applying for a debit card, it might take a few weeks before it gets delivered to your address.

ELECTRICITY

The standard voltage is 230 V and the standard frequency is 50 Hz. You can use your electric appliances in the Czech Republic if the standard voltage in your country is in between 220 - 240 V (as is in the UK, Europe, Australia and most of Asia and Africa). If the standard voltage in your country is in the range of 100 V - 127 V (as is in the US, Canada, and most South American countries), you will need to use a voltage converter or transformer while you are in the Czech Republic.

In the Czech Republic, the power plugs and sockets are of

- type C
- and type E.

Outlets have the standard European socket with two small round holes and a protruding earth (grounding) pin. Make sure to bring an adapter if you have a different plug.

TYPE E

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

Prague has one of the best public transport systems in Europe. The trams, buses, and metro cover the majority of the city and outskirts and make getting around town especially easy. Public transport in Prague is cheap, efficient and highly integrated — meaning that a single ticket can be used for the bus, metro, tram, a number of ferries and the Petřín cable car as long as you travel within the given time.

In case you plan on staying in Prague for a longer period of time, the best option is to purchase a long-term coupon. There are four types in terms of validity: monthly (CZK 550), quarterly (CZK 1,480), for 5 months (CZK 2,450), or annually (CZK 3,650). If you provide a certificate of study in the Czech Republic, you can get a significant student discount.

For one-off trips, we recommend buying a single, short-term ticket. You can choose from either a 30-minute ticket or 90-minute ticket. The basic transfer ticket for an adult costs CZK 32 and is valid for 90 minutes. Tickets for CZK 24 can be used for shorter distances of up to 30 minutes. All children under six and seniors over 70 years old may use public transportation for free.

You need to validate your ticket by using the yellow validation machines inside trams and buses (and right before the escalators at metro stations).

You then have unlimited transfers (during the 30- or 90-minutes that your ticket is valid) between any mode of public transport, which includes the metro system as well as all city trams and buses. These same tickets are also valid for night trams, buses, and even the Petřín funicular.

WHERE TO BUY A TICKET?

- In the yellow PID ticket machines: you will find them in every metro station and at some bus/tram stops. The older ticket machines only accept Czech coins (koruna), while tickets from newer machines can be bought using a card.
- At DPP information centres and some newsagents or tobacco shops (tabák) around the city.
- Inside some newer trams: the contactless terminals are located in the middle section of these newer trams. The printed ticket shows the time of sale, from which its time-validity is based. You therefore don't need to validate the ticket again at the yellow validation machines.

For long-term coupons, you can purchase a paper coupon in any of the public transport offices, get a Lítačka card (your coupon will be loaded on the card), or buy the coupons directly from the PID Lítačka app.

ACCOMMODATION

You can choose from a variety of long-term and short-term student accommodation in Prague, depending on your criteria and budget. The costs usually depend on the location and quality of the accommodation.

STUDENT ACCOMMODATION / DORMITORIES

Most of the students choose to live in student accommodation, so-called “koleje.” Each university in Prague offers the possibility to live in their university dormitories. You can expect one/two/three bedrooms units with a shared kitchen and bathroom. Rooms are equipped with basic furniture including a bed, desk, chair and wardrobe. However, it is usually up to the student to add anything else. In the kitchen, you will find again just the necessary equipment such as a cooker and fridge — other amenities such as dishes, kettles, or toasters are not typically included.

Prices vary, but the average cost is around €120 per month in a room shared with roommates (usually two people living in one room). The price includes bedding and bed linen, access to a shared kitchen/kitchenette and bathroom facilities, internet connection, and other utility costs.

You may either reserve a room on your own (usually online) or you can get more information from a study advisor or programme coordinator from your university.

For more information about university dormitories in Prague, visit Study in Prague websites.

PRIVATE ACCOMMODATION

Another option is to find private accommodation or to share a flat with either other expats or your classmates. It is common for international students to share bigger flats, especially in the city centre. Prices depend on the size, location, and equipment of the flat. The rent is about €500–800 per month for a 2–3 bedroom flat. A room in a private flat will cost about €250 per month. Be prepared to pay a deposit as well. It will be returned to you upon your departure, provided that the accommodation is left in acceptable condition.

There are several websites that offer private rooms or apartments, for example Bezrealitky.com, Expats.cz, Foreigners.cz, Forstudents.cz, or Sreality.cz.

You can also try your luck in dedicated Facebook groups or among your classmates.

HEALTH INSURANCE AND HEALTHCARE

It is the responsibility of a student to have their health insurance that meets all the legal conditions required for foreign nationals, and it must be arranged for the entire time of stay inside the Czech Republic.

EU NATIONALS

EU students are requested to bring along a 'European Health Insurance Card' (EHIC). The students should apply for the EHIC at a national health insurance provider in their home country before departure. A valid EHIC card will give you access to state-provided health care during your temporary stay in the Czech Republic. Please note that it does not guarantee free services.

For further information visit the European Commission website.

NON-EU NATIONALS

International students/non-EU citizens must arrange comprehensive medical insurance for the whole period of their stay inside the Czech Republic. It is recommended to choose the health insurance provider based also on which medical facilities and doctors that it has in its coverage network.

HEALTHCARE

The affordability, availability and coverage of health care in the Czech Republic is one of the highest in the entire OECD. Cheap medicine, price and reimbursement regulations, reasonable salaries, and other elements of the Czech healthcare system mean that you can expect a relatively high quality of healthcare at a very affordable cost. Care is provided to all citizens and foreigners in the Czech Republic.

The regulatory fee visiting a doctor is CZK 30. This fee is not paid in case of a preventive examination, at a counseling center for pregnant women, when the patient is a child under 18, or if the patient has not been examined by a doctor. The regulatory fee for an emergency room visit is CZK 90.

The healthcare system in the Czech Republic works on the principle of general health insurance. It is paid from the public health insurance, which everyone is obliged to pay. Czech citizens, residents and employers are automatically insured under the public healthcare system and pay a certain percentage of their monthly salary to the state. The state pays for insurance for students, pensioners, and women on maternity leave. Other foreigners with a long-term stay in the Czech Republic are obliged to secure health insurance from a private provider.

USEFUL TIPS:

- Every time you go to the hospital or to any other healthcare provider, take your health insurance card with you.
- Soon after moving to Prague, register with a nearby General Practitioner (GP) who will be your first point of contact in case of any medical issue.
- If you have a specific health issue, your GP will provide you with a written recommendation for you to visit a specialised doctor.
- In the case of an emergency, visit an emergency hospital, or call 155 or 112 immediately.

MOBILE PHONE PLANS

There are three main mobile network providers in the Czech Republic: Vodafone, T-Mobile and Telefónica O2, and they are all comparable in terms of services and prices.

All three offer 4G/LTE coverage on pre-paid plans or a contract which usually run for a minimum of 24 months. The price of a prepaid SIM card differs according to the services and usually costs around CZK 200–500. Part of that money is also your starting credit. Prices for calls within the Czech Republic range from CZK 3–7 per minute, and SMS messages cost between CZK 1–4.

Read Student Zone Prague's guide on getting a Czech phone number to find out more.

DRIVING

IN ORDER TO DRIVE IN THE CZECH REPUBLIC, YOU MUST HAVE REACHED THE MINIMUM AGE REQUIRED TO DRIVE/RIDE A VEHICLE AND HOLD A VALID DRIVING LICENCE.

When driving in the Czech Republic the following documents should be carried:

- Full, valid driving licence
- ID or a passport
- Vehicle registration certificate (so-called small technical license)
- Proof of Insurance (so-called green card)

In case your driving license was issued by a Member State of the EU, or in Iceland, Liechtenstein, Norway, and Switzerland, your driving license will be valid in the territory of the Czech Republic and there is no need to exchange it for a Czech driving license.

If you are a citizen of a non-EU country and your driving license does not meet the conditions of road traffic in the Czech Republic, you may drive in the Czech Republic under the condition that you obtain an International Driving Permit (IDP) to accompany your license. Please note that an IDP does not replace the driving license. You must carry your current driving license together with IDP with you all the time when driving in the Czech Republic.

Short term visitors to the Czech Republic who hold a driving license issued in a country outside of the EU may retain and use their driving license as long as it complies with the conditions of road traffic in the Czech Republic. To drive in the Czech Republic, both long-term residents who intend to stay in the country for more than 1 year and permanent residents are required to obtain a Czech driving license. This must be done within 3 months from when you receive your long-term stay or permanent residence.

Czech driving licences are valid for 10 years.

For further information, read our article on Driving in the Czech Republic. More information can be found in the Driving licence exchange and recognition in the EU – Czechia section on the European Union websites.

WASTE COLLECTION AND RECYCLING

Waste in Prague is collected using container posts, curbside collection, and permanent drop-off centres. About 99% of households use the system of container posts with recycling stations where you bring and separate your waste. The collection is provided by four specialized companies. The frequency of pick-up ranges from once every 14 days to 7 times a week.

Recycling has increased significantly over the recent years. The residents of Prague have the opportunity to recycle paper and cardboard, coloured and clear glass, plastics, beverage cartons, sizable waste, hazardous waste, mixed waste, ferrous and non-ferrous metals, electrical and wooden waste, construction debris, tires, green maintenance waste. A large part of the mixed waste collected in Prague is used for generating energy.

Among most common containers that you can find in Prague are:

- Blue - Paper/Cardboard (papír)
- Yellow - Plastic (plasty)
- Green - Glass (sklo)
- Orange - Beverage Containers (nápojové kartony, tetrapak)

Since 2020, Prague has been expanding its services in the area of biowaste collection with city-wide container collection of plant biowaste in brown containers.

How to sort a good way provides a simple overview of what you can or cannot put in the containers.

In most areas of the city, the Prague services take care of the regular collection of containers at street stations of sorted waste. Map of recycling stations in Prague created by the city of Prague contains all of the locations of Prague's recycling bins, the type and number of containers present and how often they are emptied.

TIPPING

Tipping in the Czech Republic is commonly expected because the tip is usually not included in the bill. If you were satisfied with the service, it is polite to leave 10–15% of the amount of your bill as a tip. However, tipping is not mandatory.

The most common way is to hand the tip together with the amount of your bill to the waiter when they come to collect and say thank you which translates as “děkuji.” If you want to pay with a credit card, you need to tell the waiter/waitress in advance to add the tip to the bill, as there will be no place to fill it in later.
